A Full Chapter of Incidents and Accidents of the Day, Told by the Telegraph.

The Timber in the Arkansas Life-boat.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 27.—The democratic state convention adjourned sine die this forenoon. The platform, adopted unanimously, strongly supports public education; invites immigration; encourages liberal legislation; encourages the construction of railroads, but demands all grants of corporate powers and franchises be guarded against abuse and held subject to the regulating power of the people.

The tariff plank is as follows: "We favor reform and retention in the public service, and declare our adhesion to the principles of the democratic party upon the subject of the tariff, holding that the grant to congress by the constitution, to lay and collect imports, was intended to raise revenue and forbids the opposing policy of the republican party of fostering one branch of industry to the detriment of another, and the promotion of the interests of some portions to the great injury of other portions of our common country; and we demand a material reduction of the present excessive tariff duties and such revision of the laws in passing them as will equalize the burdens and benefits derived from their levy and collection, and that no more revenue be collected than is necessary for a wise and economical administration of the government.

Sections three and four hold that there can be no conflict between the federal and state governments in the exercise of their legitimate functions and are unalterably opposed to the assumption of power upon the part of either, without constitutional warrant, for which reason we condemn the tendency of the republican party to centralize all power in the federal government. We utterly repudiate and denounce as most dangerous to the liberties of the people that heresay, which is the animating principle of the republican party, that the party is the government and we believe the administration of the government and trusts ought to be executed impartially for the benefit of all classes, rank and condition of society.

A resolution was adopted regretting Samuel J. Tilden's refusal to accept the nomination of president, and designating him as the greatest statesman and patriot since the days of Jefferson, amid the greatest applause.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—In the senate the bill for the relief of Wm. McGarrahan was reported adversely from the committee on private land claims, and placed on the calendar. The joint resolution passed providing for the settlement of accounts with the Mobile and Ohio railroad. Mitchell introduced a bill to incorporate the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, referred.

The bill passed granting the right of way through the Indian Territory to the Southern Texas railroad.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—The conference reports on the pension bill and the bill granting the right of way through the Indian territory to the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe railroad were agreed to. Forney submitted the conference report on the army appropriation bill. The report announces the agreement upon all items except upon the senate amendment striking out that portion of the bill which regulates the compensation to ssubsidized railways for army transportation which was reported as agreed to. The disagreement to the amendment indicated was insisted upon and a conference was appointed. Hanley made an unsuccessful attempt to secure the consideration of the Northern Pacific forfeiture bill and the house went into a committee of the whole, with Cox, of New York, in the chair, on the private calendar.

At 1 o'clock the committee rose for the purpose of permitting the house to dispose of the Backbone forfeiture bill. White, of Kentucky, rising to a question of privilege, sent to the clerk's desk and had read a letter published this morning, written by Representative Ellis, in 1881, to Captain George, in which he intimated that there had been improper means used to obtain the original grant. White thought a full investigation of the whole matter should be made. The chair decided the question not one of privilege. Ellis said the letter had been materially altered and garbled to suit the purposes of the publisher, and at the proper time he would expose the falsehood and magnignity of the unwarranted innuendoes directed against him in the publication alluded to. The speaker announced the question to be on the motion to table the motion to reconsider the vote by which the house yesterday defeated the backbone forfeit bill. The motion to table was agreed to—yeas 126, nays 114. So the bill was lost.

Objected to Steam.

PITTSBURG, June 27.—A serious disturbance occurred in the Twenty-seventh ward this morning between the discharged workmen of Booth & Finn, contractors, and the new force engaged to take their places. The contractors were laying a sewer pipe on Twenty-fourth street and yesterday procured a hoisting engine, with which the work could be done with one-fourth the workmen. This displeased the employes and this morning, when the contractors arrived, the men had taken the engine and boiler to the river and threw them in. The men, numbering twenty-five, were discharged and a new force was engaged; but when they attempted to work the old men interfered and a general melee took place, in which stones, pick handles and shovels were freely used. Four of the new men were badly hurt, one of them, James Kinney, being probably fatally injured. The assailants were finally driven off by the new men who then proceeded with the work. No arrests.

A Real Live Prince.

PARIS, June 27.—Prince Victor has written a letter to M. Jalibois in explanation of his present position. He says that he has profound respect for his father, Prince Jerome, but he was obliged to leave the parental roof. Since he had the right to think for himself his only line of conduct was the one enjoined by Napoleon I. and Napoleon III. He will maintain intact his great inheritance and cannot consent to take part in acts contrary to his political opinions, and resolved to withdraw from all compromising connections. Henceforth he will reply to no more attacks, but will maintain a silence begetting his position.

This information is derived from one of the family and is therefore considered reliable.

REQUIRES AN ORDINANCE.

Judge O'Rourke Sustains the Injunction Against the Purchase of the Canal Feeder---An Ordinance Required to Effect It.

This morning the injunction case against the city came up in the circuit court for a hearing. Nearly all the attorneys in the city were arrayed on either side. The attorneys for the canal owners and City Attorney Colerick had quite a lengthy consultation and finally appeared in court to call the trial. The case was presented by the opposing attorneys and all finally concluded it required the passage of an ordinance to purchase the canal and Judge O'Rourke thereupon decided the injunction should stand as against the purchase of the feeder canal by a mere resolution introduced and passed by the council. The council will meet to-night and in accordance with the decision of the court will cause to be introduced and passed to a second reading an ordinance purchasing the feeder canal property for the first proposed sum $15,000. At a subsequent meeting of the council the resolution will be passed and the purchase of the best water supply ever offered the city consummated.

Neuralgia's Big Brother

Neuralgia means nerve-pain. There are in the human system nerves of many kinds and of great variety of sizes. Each nerve has its own function, and each its own particular work to do.

In the leg, running downward from the hip, is the great Sciatic Nerve, which, with its branches, carries telegraphic messages from the brain, through the legs, to the extremities of the toes. When the Sciatic Nerve is affected, you have SCIATICA.

SCIATICA is one of the worst and most gigantic forms of nerve-pain or neuralgia. You may with comparative patience worry through an attack of neuralgia in face or head. That is bad enough, but when Sciatica seizes you, you are helpless.

There are various forms of Sciatica. People speak of Rheumatic Sciatica, Sciatic Rheumatism, Sciatic Neuralgia, and all that sort of thing. Call it what you please, it is the disorder of this great Sciatic Nerve. There is just one thing that will stop it.

That one thing is ATHLOPHOROS. It neutralizes that vicious condition of the blood which causes the mischief. In a word, it conquers the whole family of rheumatic and neuralgic ailments. Working quickly, pleasantly and thoroughly, it leaves no evil effects

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We pay for that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

HON. WILLIAM WILLIAMS was nominated by acclamation by the republicans of the thirteenth district, as their representative in congress, at Michigan City, yesterday.

GUITEAU'S sister, Mrs. Scoville, is said to be canvassing Pennsylvania selling pictures, her object being she says, to raise money to prosecute her brother's murderers.

THE dangerous illness of Hon. John B. Stoll, of the South Bend Times, is sad news to that gentleman's many friends throughout the state, who will all unite in the hope for his speedy recovery.

COL. ISAAC P. GRAY, for governor, and Gen. Mahlon D. Manson, for lieutenant governor, are the strong leaders which the Indiana democrats will follow to victory in November.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

IT seems that Mr. Arthur did not succeed in crushing John C. New's ambition. Mr. New is working with might and main for a little government position which once slipped between his fingers. It may slip again.

THE North Carolina democratic state convention nominated Gen. Alfred M. Scales for governor, and Charles M. Stedman for lieutenant governor. The delegates to the Chicago convention are divided between Bayard and Cleveland.

THE recent pictures of Black Jack Logan as compared with those which were thrust upon the country immediately after his nomination shows that he has had his head under a barber's care. The Chicago convention has at least been of one service.

NO CLUBS or any organization of that character will be admitted to the Chicago convention. The members of such organizations must secure their tickets of admission from the delegates. This convention will not be packed by a Chicago mob in the interest of any candidate as was the republican convention.

THE platform of all democratic state conventions which have been held up to this time, have been broad and comprehensive, defining only that which the party of the country stands pledged to prosecute. They are the principles which the people approve and endorse and which admit of no misconstruction or misrepresentation.

BROOKLYN has an ordinance against the sweet and melodious serenade of the house cat after business hours. This is a blow at our liberty. If a man wants to own a cat and wants that cat to mount the back fence every night, singing to him a feline lullaby, it is his own business, and the Brooklyn alderman ought to respect it.

HON. MONTGOMERY HAMILTON is not an alternate to the Chicago convention. He was appointed but declined to accept the honor.

HON. DANIEL E. McDONALD, of the Plymouth Democrat, has performed the remarkable feat of traveling over 400 miles in a small canoe. His experiences were varied and interesting.

STEPHEN ELKINS is a sample of republican purity. The selection of such a man to do the work of the campaign means fraud, corruption and the practice of every dishonorable trick known to unscrupulous and conniving politicians of the lower grade. And yet the republican party clothes itself in its long white robe and hangs out the sign of "purity."

GOOD and reliable authority says that Mr. Jones, the newly selected chairman of the republican national committee, will only be a figure-head in the campaign and that Stephen Elkins will be the chief man to all intents and purposes. Elkins is a man similar to Dorsey, and we may expect another campaign fought on Dorsey's plans and methods. Jones will furnish a liberal supply of the "soap."

"The work of the convention in Indiana Wednesday insures a democratic governor and lieutenant governor for that state for the next four years. The nomination of Gray and Manson will bring out every democratic vote and draw largely from the republican ranks. Colonel Gray was nominated for governor on the first ballot, and General Manson received his nomination by acclamation. The ticket is a strong one, and there is every indication of its election"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

IN a circular, just issued, Harper & Bros. say: "So far from betraying the confidence of its readers, Harper's Weekly pursues an entirely consistent course in opposing a candidate whom it believes to be the representative of all that is destructive of republican principles. Had it failed to oppose the election of Mr. Blaine, as it strenuously opposed his nomination, it would have been guilty of a most serious 'breach of faith,' would have stultified its whole record as an independent political journal, and would have justly forfeited the confidence of the public."

MICHIGAN university has just turned out 261 graduates, of which 102 take degrees from the literary and scientific departments, 14 from the law department, and 145 from the medical department. Fifty-two take the degree of bachelor of arts, fourteen bachelor of philosophy, ten bachelor of letters, nine bachelor of science, one master of philosophy, and one doctor of philosophy. In the medical department 104 took the degree of doctor of medicine, of whom 19 were from the homeopathic college; pharmacentical chemist, 39; doctor of dental surgery, 4. Their prospective occupations are as follows: Law, 23; teaching, 19; medicine, 11; engineering, 6; ministry, 4; journalism, 3; farming, 1.

THE republican party is the friend of the laboring man, so we are told. The republican nominee for governor of this state has been elected to congress by the oppression of the laboring classes in his district, the employers of large numbers of workmen compelling them to vote for him under pain of dismissal. John C. New, Indiana's member of the national committee, is also the great friend of the poor man, having refused to employ all men belonging to labor organizations. James G. Blaine, the nominee for president, has always opposed all labor organizations and the convention which nominated him refused to recognize a memorial presented them by a committee of these organizations, praying for recognition and protection. And yet the republican party poses as the friend of the poor man. What hypocrisy! What inconsistency! The laboring classes will not be gulled by such double dealing.

INDIANA AT CHICAGO.

The hearty indorsement which the democracy of Indiana have given Hon. Joseph E. McDonald as a candidate for the presidency brings him prominently before the people of the country for their support in that convention. In Indiana, where he is best known, he enjoys the full esteem and the highest confidence of the people. His career is familiar and has oft been repeated. He has, with only the force of true manliness and ability, worked his way from a poor and ignorant boy to a high position among his fellow-countrymen. He is now known as an able, educated and honorable man; what more can be said in his favor? These points cover all the ground so far as individuality is concerned.

But there are other matters which enter into the canvass this year. The west has long demanded the first place on the ticket which has for years been filled by an eastern man, and Indiana is the pivotal state of the west. It is so regarded and so acknowledged by all. We want a man who represents western ideas, who knows something about the needs and the demands of this vast and rapidly developing portion of the country. We do not want a man who has been reared and nurtured by the glare of Wall street. We do not want a man who is allied to the money sharks and their ruinous financial policy, but we do want a man who can understand what the country needs, whose heart is filled with the desires for its advancement and who can furnish the means and the matter to advance it. Such a man is Indiana's candidate. Born in poverty he has learned an economical system, which he has applied in all his public life. Reared among the producers of the nation he has become thoroughly familiar with the interests of that class, while his public services have taught him in the different interests or classes, to which he has applied the same economy. Besides he is strong as a leader. His nomination would leave no room for doubt in regard to Indiana, nor of other states now considered uncertain and whose electoral votes are necessary for success.

The democracy of the country demands a safe and capable leader. They demand the selection of a ticket which means an aggressive campaign, and with Joe McDonald heading that ticket and with any good man for the second place, the party would feel that they had a leader in whom they could place confidence and who would rally about him all the elements which bring success.

The Terrible Drain

Which scrofula has upon the system must be arrested, and the blood must be purified, or serious consequences will ensue. For purifying and vitalizing effects, Hood's Sarsaparilla has been found superior to any other preparation. It expels every trace of impurity from the blood and bestows new life and vigor upon every function of the body, enabling it to entirely overcome disease.

The house has passed bills repealing the pre-emption, lumber culture, and desert land law, and to determine the method of counting the electoral vote.

Every woman in the Land

owes it to herself and her family to take care of her health. When she finds her health failing, and debility and weakness, undermines her strength, her surest and best remedy is Kidney-Wort. It builds up the general health, keeps the secretory system in perfect order, regulates the kidneys and bowels, and enables these important organs to perform their natural functions in throwing off the accumulated impurities of the body.

They Will Surely Find You.

They are looking for you everywhere. Drafts of air in unexpected places, going from hot rooms to cool ones, carelessness in changing clothing—in short everything which ends in a common cold in the head. Unless arrested this kind of cold becomes seated in the mucous membrane of the head. Then it is catarrh. In any and all its stages this disease always yields to Ely's Cream balm. Applied to the nostril with the finger. Safe, agreeable, certain. Price fifty cents.

The Orangemen of all Ireland will hold a meeting at Newry on July 12.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

S. Cary Evans, a former Fort Wayne citizen, is having a serious controversy with the editor of a newspaper at Riverside, Cal. A representative of the journal is in the city gathering unpleasant gossip about Mr. Evans' early life here. Since residing at Riverside Mr. Evans has become very rich, and his success probably incites envy and malice to crop out.

The law enacted by congress regarding postage on second-class mail matter, and approved June 9, 1884, is now in force. It reduces the postage on transient newspapers one-half. The law heretofore exacted one cent for each two ounces or fractional part thereof. The new rate allows a paper or periodical not exceeding four ounces to be transmitted any distance through the mails for one cent.

General Manager Talmage, of the Jay Gould line, telegraphs from Jefferson City, Mo.: "The crops are looking splendidly everywhere on the Missouri, and on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Central branch lines. In Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska corn is well cleared and the weather is favorable." Reports from the assistant superintendent of the Central branch say there is a 36 per cent. increase on wheat on that line, and that it is all in fine condition, with harvesting now on along the Joplin line, and the wheat is turning out finely.

She returned home on Saturday. Her brother Albert went down on Friday with a contribution of flowers and enjoyed the graduating exercises, which were largely attended."

To-night, at 6 o'clock, work will be commenced on the construction of a branch water main to supply a hydraulic elevator, at No. 45 East Main street. In consequence of this the water will be shut off during the night on East Main street, from Clinton to Lafayette streets, and on Barr, from Columbia to Berry streets. The people affected by this will govern themselves accordingly.

Wm. P. Breen and wife, R. W. T. DeWald and sister, Miss Minnie, Mrs. Lucy Phillips and her little daughter, and Charles F. Muhler have returned from Notre Dame where they attended the closing exercises of the great university there. Mr. Will Breen is an honored graduate of the Notre Dame university, and is proud of his alma mater. He tells us the oratorical contest was participated in by Elmer A. Otis, Otis B. Spencer and James Salon. Mr. Otis spoke on "The Drama," Mr. Spencer on "The Death of Cæsar," and Mr. Salon on the "Power and Influence of the Orator." The most exciting event was the boat race between the six-oared crews of the Evangeline and the Minnehaha. The Evangeline won by several lengths.

HONORED NAMES.

The Corner Stone of the M. E. College Opened and the Ancient Documents Read With Interest--The Names of Honored Pioneers.

A few days ago the old corner stone of the M. E. College was opened, and yesterday Rev. M. S. Metts laid the treasure receptacle before the board of college trustees. The box is of tin, and though well sealed, the documents and papers therein were wet, mouldy and almost illegible. There were copies of Dawson's Daily Times and People's Press, and the FORT WAYNE DAILY SENTINEL of June 19, 1847, besides other publications of a religious nature. The original name of the institution was the Methodist Female Seminary, and its first president was Rev. Dr. G. H. Rounds, of Georgia, and his successors were Rev. Dr. Nutt, Hon. Samuel Brenton and Rev. Dr. Robinson. Mr. A. C. Huestis was a professor in the institution and its acting president for five years. The name of the institution was changed to the Fort Wayne Female College and Collegiate Institute, and finally to the Fort Wayne college, its present title. The first board of trustees were as follows: President, William Rockhill; secretary, J. K. Edgerton; Hon. R. W. Thompson, ex-secretary of the navy, ex-Governor James Whitcomb, W. G. Ewing, Lemuel G. Jones, Samuel Edsall, John G. Walpole, Thomas W. Sale, Samuel Shryock, Wesley Park, Benjamin Mason, G. M. Boyd, Henry Williams and Asa Fairfield. On a roll of honor appear the following names of distinguished Fort Wayne citizens: William Rockhill, William G. Ewing, Samuel Edsall, Benjamin Smith, Chas. E. Sturgis, Benjamin Mason, John G. Walpole, Asa Fairfield, Hugh McCulloch, J. K. Edgerton, Joseph Brackenridge, sr., James P. Munson, Jones & Hartman, Ezekiel McMackin, Alexander McCulloch, Samuel Stophlet, Pliny Hoagland, Wesley Park, Dr. Jones, Theodore K. Brackenridge, William Tharp, George Johnson, Brother Jones, Chas. French, John Coconour, Joseph Hassler, John Tharp, Jack W. Hackley, Allen Hamilton, A. E. Fleming, W. Worthington, Philo H. Taylor, Samuel Shryock and John Shonff.

SOMEWHAT SENSATIONAL.

The Friends of Mary Mulharen Interfere and Fight the Charge of Insanity--A Commission Examines the Case of Ed. Gaffney--Will Swinney Insane.

Yesterday afternoon it was the intention to adjudge Mary Mulharen of unsound mind. The absence of witnesses delayed matters and the publication of the case in THE SENTINEL aroused the relatives of the old lady, who this morning employed Robertson & Harper to contest the inquest. It seems Mrs. Mulharen has just received $2,700 pension money, and the complaint alleges her mind has become enfeebled and unsound by reason of age and disease, therefore she is incapable of managing her estate or investing her money. Tom Mulharen, her son, denied, through his attorneys, the charges above entirely. The matter was argued at length by Sam L. Morris for the plaintiffs and Colonel R. S. Robertson for the defense. The case was submitted to a jury, who decided Mrs. Mulharen not insane. The old lady lives with her son and is the mother of Mrs. Thomas Hutchinson.

ED. GAFFNEY.

No man in the Sixth ward is better known or liked than Ed Gaffney, who for about seventeen years was night watchman at the Wabash shops. For some time he has been out of employment, and although possessed of considerable money and property, he worried constantly about the future. This afternoon a commission examined Mr. Gaffney, who will besent to a private asylum and cared for by his brother, William Gaffney. It is believed a short treatment will restore his reason.

SWINNEY INSANE.

This afternoon Will Swinney, whose eccentricities have been sufficiently referred to, was taken into court and adjudged insane by Drs. McCullough and Rosenthal and Justices France and Ryan. Swinney is one of the heirs of the Swinney estate and is quite wealthy. He will be taken to the state asylum, where an effort will be made to disabuse his mind of his cattle rancho schemes.

It is hoped that he may soon be fully restored to health of body and of mind.

The Wabash Railroad Hospital Established Here.

Chief Surgeon Outten, of the Wabash, St. Louis and Pacific railroad, was in the city yesterday consulting with Dr. C. B. Stemen, the company's surgeon here, relative to the establishment of a hospital for injured or sick employes of the eastern division. It was arranged that while a hospital would be next year erected at Fort Wayne, for the present a ward of the St. Joseph hospital would be set apart for Wabash employes. This will obviate the removal of patients from this city and will be altogether far more satisfactory. The plan of managing the hospital is certainly a nice one. The injured and sick are not only sent to the hospital and there cared for at the company's expense but, wife, sister, mother or a close friend are taken there too, to nurse to convalescence the faithful servant of the company. More than this the Wabash will see that an employe, whose faithfulness is recognized, if he shows signs of consumption, be taken to the south on a health trip at the company's expense. Should he die the company will contribute $35 toward his decent interment.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. George Vetter, jr., Aberdeen, Dakota Territory, writes: "Both in my family and stable I keep constantly a supply of St. Jacobs Oil and find it to be the best remedy ever used."

Since Harper's Weekly announced opposition to Blaine and Logan its circulation in this city has increased with A. C. Katt & Co. alone twenty-five copies a week. In republican strongholds the paper has been cut, but not in Fort Wayne.

There was an imperial looking jury in the circuit court this morning. Among others were Charles Comparet, William T. Pratt, Ed Clausmeyer, Joe Bowers, Sam Miller, Henry Hitzman and Larry Markey. They kicked hard, but had to do duty for the state.

Editors are proverbially cautious in lending the endorsement of their names and influence, but Mr. John Hearn, of The Valley Sentinel, at Sidney, Ohio, sends a voluntary testimonial to the merits of Athlophoros. He writes: "The medicine you sent me has given my wife more relief from rheumatism and neuralgia than anything she has ever tried and she has tried everything, having been a sufferer for fifteen years. I have let other sufferers here have the medicine with much benefit."

Mrs. Johanna Doud, whose recent death at the extreme age of 105 years, occurred in Miami county a few days ago, was at no time unable to leave her bed. Death was caused by old age. She was born in the county of Kerry, Ireland, and came to America in 1847. She was the mother of nine children, five of whom survive her. She leaves forty-five grandchildren and quite a number of great-grand children and several great-great-grandchildren. Her memory of early events was very distinct and she frequently referred to the Irish rebellion of 1798.

Chronic Costiveness Cured by Brandreth's Pills.

BULLY BUENO MILL, Arizona Ter., Jan. 24, 1883.

For the last two years I have been greatly troubled with costiveness, often ten or twelve days elapsing without any movement of my bowels. I have tried many remedies, but none with success, until I used your vegetable pills—taking three pills and increasing one each night until I took nine, then decreasing one each night. Since then my bowels have continued regular each day, and my headache, sour stomach and general lassitude have left me, and I feel like another man—which is entirely owing to your pills—and I would not be without them in this new country.
